

The following excerpt is from Appendix 1 of Council's Governance Policy. The entire Policy is available on the council website at www.mfcouncil.ca

The Council consists of a total of five members including four regular members and a Chair. Two members are elected by Managed Forest land owners and two members are appointed by government. Owner members and the Chair are selected in accordance with the Act and by-laws of the Council. The Chair is selected by the four members. The Council also designates one of its members as Vice Chair.

General Qualifications and Personal Attributes for Council Members

- proven leadership ability;
- skills in conducting hearings and an understanding of administrative law, including an understanding of alternative dispute resolution;
- analytical and decision making skills;
- demonstrated superior written and oral communication skills;
- excellent interpersonal skills;
- demonstrated organizational and case management skills;
- high ethical standards and integrity in professional and personal dealings;
- ability and willingness to raise potentially controversial issues in a manner that encourages dialogue;
- flexibility, responsiveness and willingness to consider change;
- ability and willingness to listen to others;
- capability for a wide perspective on issues;
- demonstrated good judgment;
- general knowledge of the issues and geography of the province;
- basic computing skills including familiarity with internet and e-mail;
- a valid British Columbia driver's licence and willingness to travel;
- ability to work as a team member; and
- other qualifications pertinent to the performance of the duties of the position.

Members of the Council are expected to have the following minimum or equivalent qualifications and experience:

- experience in one or more of the following areas:
  - provincial government
  - local government
  - forestry
  - resource and/or environmental management
  - economics
  - law
  - conflict resolution/mediation/negotiation
- knowledgeable in matters relating to forest management practices or local government;
- knowledge of issues affecting forestry and environmental protection, the Provincial government and local governments;
- support for the public interest in regulating forest practices on Managed Forest class land and appreciation of the responsibilities of the Council to the public;
- demonstrated sensitivity to stakeholder and politically sensitive issues;
- an existing profile and contacts with stakeholder groups, local governments and other provincial agencies;
- familiarity with Provincial and local government jurisdiction, organization and processes;
- familiarity with forestry, First Nation and other stakeholder issues.